Type of Retreat (Circle)

Preached - The retreat director offers one or two conferences each day to the group of retreatants, and then the retreatants process the offerings quietly on their own.

Guided - The retreat director gives one or two conferences each day to the group. Questions are offered to the group with the opportunity to process quietly and then as a group. Prayer experiences are shared.

Directed - The retreatant meets daily one-on-one with a director to reflect on the prayer experiences of the retreat. Usually the meeting lasts approximately one-half hour with the remainder of the day spent in silent reflection

Private - This retreat is done completely on one's own without a director. Usually there is silence throughout the retreat.
