

SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, B

Priest Celebrant

We stand before the Lord
who heals and forgives,
who has pity on us and will sustain us:

Deacon/Cantor/Priest

For the Church's perseverance in hearing and proclaiming God's Word;
for parish renewal in worship, education, and charity,
we pray to the Lord:

For the gift of penance and reconciliation;
for preservation from the materialism and immorality of our day,
we pray to the Lord:

For leaders who defend the life of every human being and labor for their peoples' health and education,
we pray to the Lord:

For peace in Iraq, the Holy Land, and their neighbors;
for the safety of civilians and the armed forces,
we pray to the Lord:

For the healing of the abused and betrayed;
for conversion from anger, violence, revenge,
we pray to the Lord:

For care-givers at home,
in hospitals, nursing homes, hospices, prisons,
we pray to the Lord:

For [, and all]
our sick,
we pray to the Lord:

For [, and]
everyone who has died this week,
we pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, now and for ever.
