DECREE

DELAYING THE RELEGATION OF HOLY TRINITY CHURCH, PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA TO PROFANE BUT NOT SORDID USE

On July 25, 2019 I issued a decree relegating Holy Trinity Church to profane but not sordid use. That decree indicated the grave reasons necessitating this action. The decree also provided that the relegation would be effective on September 3, 2019.

Subsequent to the publication of that decree, a number of concerns were raised relative to the relegation. In light of these concerns, on August 26, 2019 I issued a subsequent decree delaying the implementation date of the relegation of Holy Trinity Church to November 12, 2019. Due to the fact that these concerns still exist, it is necessary to once again delay the relegation so that these concerns can be properly addressed.

Therefore, the date of the implementation of my original decree of July 25, 2019 relegating Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, having previously been transferred from September 3, 2019 until November 12, 2019, is now hereby transferred to May 12, 2020.

Given at the Curia of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, on this 29th day of October, 2019.

Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.

Archbishop of Philadelphia
